Ref.

The Class of '44 wishes to express its deep and heartfelt gratitude to those faculty members whose effort and encouragement have made this book possible. To Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd, Miss Hastings, Miss Myers, and Miss Carroll, we extend our earnest and sincere thanks.

DEDICATION

MISS FLORENCE A. CARTER

To you for your encouragement, your inspiration and your unfailing interest in each one of us. You have smoothed many of the rough places; you have been a true companion. The class of '44 takes this opportunity to thank you for the help which you have so generously given us.

CLASS POEM

We weep
For leaving all who have contrived
That basis for our start,
Not spanning spaces in a single sweep
But faring down a clearly marked path,
For those who pointed out the way,
What we must face
In life, and what, also,
We must encounter in ourselves;
Time cannot erase these memories.
And we weep not. For Life expands before us and
We reach out to it as toward distant stars,
Known far away yet ever seeming near.
We must become what we must be
And more.

THIRD FORM

Twenty little maids from M.V.S., a group of maidens who Hail from places far and wide: there's Val from South Africa; Scotty from England; and "Texas"; and Liz from Minnesota. Together we are Incredible; so said Mrs. Lloyd when twice we won Flag Honor. No denying, we are Record-breaking with Anne, Judy, Topsy, and Woo in Optima; Tribby, Molly, and Kay in Sports. And we were
Dynamic as we all worked together with Miss Shisler's aid.

Fun we have had, while mirthful Mimi, Pat, and Betsy kept us gay; the dance was successful—in fact, it was grand; and in all our doings there was found Originality, with Babs in Little Theatre and Eppie in Publications. Then too, Jane, Nancy, and Sue will be Remembered for their help in War Activities. But Memories like these are matched with recollections of Fourth Formers, to whom we and "Dodo" give greetings. We will miss you.

*President, Margaret Hartman
Vice-President, Florence Foerderer*

*Secretary, Mary Ellen Davis
Treasurer, Florence Griffin*

SECOND FORM

Remember what fun we had at the dance that was given before Christmas at the Wesley Heights Club . . . that was where we finally found out what the Tom's, Dick's, and Harry's whom we had heard so much about really looked like . . . and the craze for learning the "cat", that "hep" jitterbug dance— well, at least we all tried to learn! Remember, in Geometry, the compass that never worked and the queer figures that resulted from it . . . the long bicycle rides that we had whether it was cold or warm, sunshine or windy . . . and the aches that followed! Remember "O Romeo, Romeo, wherefore art thou Romeo?" Remember study hall and those studious expressions we had on our faces . . . the Valentine

Dance, given at Gatesley, when there were a lot of hearts on the loose and some were snagged on that memorable night . . . what fun we had learning those Spanish Christmas carols . . . the famous first lines of Caesar, "all of Gaul is divided in three parts." Remember that "coke party" given by the old girls for the new in October when we really got acquainted . . . laughter heard daily from the French classes in room 10 . . . "Sit up," "Head back," "shoulders down", those orders given at posture classes. Remember the dissection of frogs, osmosis, fission and assimilation . . .

Remember them! We can't forget them! Nor our fifty-yard dash to 4020 at lunch time. Remember what a wonderful time we had being in the Second Form with such a swell bunch of girls? We sure do!

President, Martha Metzel

Vice-President, Nancy Anderson

Secretary-Treasurer, Valerie Meyer

FIRST FORM

One of the high spots of the first semester was our attainment of Flag Honor, as our class achieved the highest citizenship average in the Preparatory School.

We had two representatives in the Little Theatre Group, and both of these girls had parts in the Christmas and Spring Plays.

Naturally, we all enjoy athletics and this year, in addition to basketball, hockey, and badminton, we have participated in ice skating and bicycling. Bicycling has been very popular, for the roads and scenery in Spring Valley have added greatly to the enjoyment of the rides.

Our first year at Mount Vernon has been a most happy one, and we are looking forward with great expectancy to the Fall, when we shall enter the Second Form.

CLASS PROPHECY

The Time is June 1, 1949

The Place: Station M. V. S.

Announcer Joan Dimmitt approaches the microphone; studio manager Judy Plaster looks at her watch, then signals "On the Air" and Miss Dimmitt, with that calm, steady voice her listeners love, reads: "This is Joan Dimmitt with the latest in news brought to you through the courtesy of Lynn Dwyer cosmetics.

"Flash—Madame Menzel has just reported her discovery of the ninety-third element, 'Suzanium'. Miss Betty Stoetzer, the famed chemical research worker who has also been working toward this discovery, is flying to Boston immediately to check Madame Menzel's discovery—Bettie Lee Rardin has just defeated Frizzletop in the tennis semi-finals today. Miss Rardin will play Lila Smith, the present champion, tomorrow at Forrest Hills for the Women's International Championship—Word has just come in that Nancy Mont- gomery will be unable to toss the pigskin in the Powder Bowl game next week due to injuries received in practice—Flash! Election returns just in from Ohio give Kathleen Kitchen the victory in a closely contested race for state senator. She will continue her fight for the 'Old Deal'. Bing Lind, the National Democratic Party Chairman, in a statement issued to the press in regard to this Republican landslide, said, and I quote: 'I don't get it.'

"From Georgia comes news that Dogbiscuit will be able to enter in the Kentucky Derby due to the professional skill of veterinarian, Miss Bibba Ellis, who was able not only to set but to heal completely the leg he broke early last year.

"That is all the news for now, ladies and gentlemen, so to all you 'Buyers of Dwyers' Good Buying.

"Now, after a brief pause for station identification, station M. V. S. continues with 'The Women's Page', brought to you by Miss Betty Boardman, our golden-voiced commentator from Georgia."

"Hi, y'all, this is Betty Boardman, bringing you the news of the woman of the day, some quick reports of the best-sellers by our guest editor, the noted book writer, Anne Ivey, and a song by our own Peggy Rogers.

"And now for the news. The nation's favorite cover girl, Miss Dorothy Legge, is touring the continent with her fashion designer, June Haskell. . . . Mollie Maguire is being kept busy these days, designing and populating those 'castles in the air' . . . Abby Willard is still dragging down at Annapolis . . . Patty Sundblom announced today that she has finished her series of drawings of the delectable Jane Galigher, the country's number one pin-up girl.

"In the field of education there are two items of national interest. First is the opening of Miss Betty Hall's Finishing Hall for Finished Young Ladies, and then we have the news that Dr. Frances Nunn has been offered the chair of English at Wellesley College.

"Here is Peggy Rogers, singing the theme song from that new Broadway hit, 'Bedtime Story', starring the lovely Ann Brinton. . .

"And now we take great pleasure in presenting Miss Anne Ivey, the noted book critic, who will give us a short survey on what America is reading.

Miss Ivey, as you know, has just published her collection of criticisms which has been very well accepted by her wide public. Miss Ivey."

"Good evening, ladies and gentlemen. Again this week 'Time for a Short One' by Jean Hoyt is number one on your fiction hit parade. This book contains eight short stories, all with the careful plot structure, wisdom, and gentle humor people have come to expect in Miss Hoyt's stories. Jean Davis' delightful biography, 'My Ideal', is going into its second edition. In poetry, Ann Rothery is still heading the list with 'So Much Free Time', which contains many of her best poems to date.

"And now for some social notes from all over. Miss Jane Macauley, the tutor of the laughing baboons, who has just been signed by Ringling Brothers, was seen lunching in the Neptune Room with Frances Briscoe, 'Miss Miami of 1949'—Beauty and the Beast (trainer) . . . Miss Patty Rosicki, the prominent artist, was noticed coming out of the Mellon Art Gallery after inspecting her exhibit hanging there.

"And that's all for the 'Woman's Page' for tonight. Remember to tune in next decade for more news and keep the dial set at station M. V. S. for 'One Man's Family', starring Isabelle Kar-sunky, which follows immediately."

IN RETROSPECT

Will we ever forget the Class of '44?

We came from all parts of the country; most of us were in a daze, trying to understand each other's Southern drawls and having to contend with mid-western r's; hominy grits were forgotten in favor of a hasty cup of coffee.

Not like previous years was it? Different surroundings; long hikes up to lunch at 4020; an accumulation of bus transfers; and our daily rides with "Herby"!

Unforgettable too, were our sloppy moccasins, tweed skirts, wings pinned on baggy sweaters, velvet bands and long bobs, as we gazed longingly at the smooth sophistication of Garfinckel's clothes.

You must remember 3:15 on Fridays as the day students gaily discussed weekend plans and the boarders returned to Glenbrook and Gatesly, anticipating letter-writing and Frank Sinatra. For weeks in advance the main topics of conversation were the notoriously gay week-ends in New York and Annapolis. In the limelight were frequent visits to the Hot Shoppe and Nick's. Dances at Wesley Heights and the Sulgrave Club were loads of fun even though Uncle Sam was hard to cope with.

However, life was not all bliss! Do you recall the fumes of H₂S mingling with the odors of formaldehyde . . . the lab students usually being late for their next period session with Hamlet . . . writing 20-page Spanish themes and trying to comprehend Confucian principles while we were putting our homework off all weekend and always finding the alarm clock set for five a. m. on Monday.

We will always remember the thrill at Constitution Hall while listening to the symphonies, the glittering Ice Capades, the Little Theater's Christmas Play and their benefit production for the Red Cross; . . . how deeply moved we were after hearing Mrs. Currier read "Silence of the Sea". . . What ever happened to the strict diets which we faithfully decided to follow for two weeks before every vacation?

Looking back we will remember . . . the wonderful times, lasting friendships and the enthusiastic spirit at M.V.S. . . .

CLASS WILL AND TESTAMENT

Whereas: We, the class of nineteen hundred and forty four, being of—shall we say—reasonably sound mind and body, and having attained what we confidently proclaim a ‘proper age,’ do hereby declare this our last will and testament;

To Mrs. Lloyd we leave our sincerest gratitude and appreciation for all that she has done for us.

To Mr. Lloyd we leave the “manpower shortage” to cope with—as we have.

To Miss Hastings we leave the problem of finding unsuspecting schools for her delinquents.

To Miss Myers our favorite aunt, we leave an anthology of the problems of thirty young nieces.

To Mrs. Lindsay we each leave one red ration token for Guillum.

To Mrs. Currier we leave thirty ticket stubs to the Washington National Symphony.

To Miss Nourse we leave our undying devotion to the present distinguished gentleman of sixteen hundred Pennsylvania Avenue.

To Senorita Carroll we leave any recordings Tito Guizar may have made of “BESAME MUCHO”.

To Miss Reed we leave the Chemistry Lab, a little worse for wear.

I, FRAN BRISCOE, leave in care of Doris Stoetzer the sincerest gratitude and best wishes of this fourth form to the next.

I, LILA SMITH, leave the United States for that heavenly Hawaiian ratio and my quota.

I, BETTY LEE RARDIN, leave my system of juggling books to Judy Easley.

I, JEAN HOYT, leave my brains to the Science Department of Harvard University.

I, KATHLEEN KITCHEN, leave my ravishing beauty, my sparkling personality, my Betty Grable legs, and my genius to some other dreamer.

I, BETTY BOARDMAN, leave my passion for ‘Georgia-thick’ milk to Anne Henderson’s cats.

I, FRANCES NUNN, leave my serenity to Nancy Boger with Joyce Scott as a shining example.

I, LYNN DWYER, leave my athletic prowess to M.V.S.’s cricket champ, Val Moolman.

I, BETTY STOETZER, leave my meticulous methods to all future Glenbrook-ers.

I, JUDY PLASTER, leave my math ponies AND Anne Lane to Pat Lephfew.

I, ANNE ROTHERY, leave my poetic abilities to Ogden Nash.

- I, PATTY SUNDBLOM, leave my hour-glass figure to whomever would like to shape her career as I have.
- I, SUE MENZEL, leave my BOOK OF RULES ON EVERYTHING FROM MICE TO MEN to Sue Maloney.
- I, JANE GALIGHER, leave the Gatesley phone, complete with slugs, to Mr. Lloyd.
- I, BING LIND, leave my precious bottle of peroxide to Liz Lyman.
- I, DOR LEGGE, leave anything less than an Ensign. PERIOD!
- I, ABBY WILLARD, leave my men to swell the ranks of Catherine Whittaker's 'gang'.
- I, BIBBA ELLIS, leave my femininity to Alice Carey Kimmel.
- I, JEAN DAVIS, leave my little black book (Volume L-W) to Joan Epstein, Betty Henry, and Jane Hyman to fight over.
- I, JANE MACAULAY, leave a certain tall, dark, and handsome Landonite to Chris McCartin.
- I, BELLE KARSUNKY, leave my priceless copy of HOW TO GET AND HOLD A MAN to all eager third formers.
- I, JOAN DIMMITT, leave my ability to reach the top shelf to Topsy (Doris Moses).
- I, ANNE BRINTON, leave my dramatic flair to Babs Cole, to have and to hold.
- I, MOLLY MAGUIRE, leave my many, many MOLLY-BEN bracelets to Molly Goodrich.
- I, BETTY HALL, and
- I, JUNE HASKELL, leave the day students' room in a state of utter destruction.
- I, PATTY ROSICKI, leave my silver skates, my pillow, and my Absorbine Jr. to Tribby.
- I, PEGGY ROGERS, leave my black sweater to Peggy Winfrey.
- I, ANNE IVEY, leave my two-way stretch to Mimi Mackall.
- I, NANCY MONTGOMERY, leave with Senorita's permission.

Knowing well that our days at M.V.S. are numbered, we the fourth form class, do herewith proclaim the above our last will and testament, in witness thereof, we set our hands and seal this thirtieth day of March, nineteen hundred and forty-four.
